STRATEGIC PLANNING:

MEETING THE CHALLENGES OF THE 21ST CENTURY

Help us plan our future! Be part of an exciting process! Come together, in person, to work with your neighbors, friends, teachers, students, and administrators to create a shared vision for Manchester Regional High School!

Using a dynamic process guided by New Jersey School Boards Association, we will collaborate during three highly participatory sessions, to develop unique goals and objectives to move the district forward to meet the challenges of the 21st century and beyond.

At our first meeting on Wednesday, October 13, you will have an opportunity to provide input on the current strengths and needs of our schools and community as you see them, and to share your own vision for our schools and students. The session will begin promptly at 7pm in the Innovation Center, 70 Church Street. Dinner will be served.

The second meeting date is Tuesday, October 26, and the third meeting shall take place on Thursday, November 18. Each session will last about 90 minutes.

Participation in any or all of our three sessions will be greatly appreciated.
